

February 2022

WEBINARS

Feb 2 (6:00-7:30PM): Educator Evaluation in 2021 and Beyond with Gina Gullo

Feb 9 (5:00-6:30PM): Speak Up! Confronting White Nationalism in the Classroom

Feb 16 (6:00-7:30PM): Critical Race Theory, Multi-Culturalism, Culturally Responsive Pedagogy, and Social Justice for Equity in Schools Today with Chris Clayton

Feb 23 (6:30-8:00PM): Tech Tools for Math Practice and Assessment

Register at: www.psea.org/webinars

BOOK DISCUSSIONS

Feb 7 (5:00-6:00PM): Look Both Ways: A Tale Told in Ten Blocks by Jason Reynolds

Judith Petruzzi guides readers down ten blocks of after school experiences as they explore the detours students and educators face in their independent and connected walks through life.

Feb 15 (5:00-6:00PM): Stamped from the Beginning by Ibram X. Kendi

Chris Clayton fosters a discussion of this history of how racist ideas were created, spread, and rooted in American society.

Feb 24 (5:00-6:00PM): Little Legends/Leaders/Dreamers by Vashti Harrison

Gina Gullo guides readers as they consider how to use these books when integrating Black & Indigenous People of Color (BIPOC)

Register at: www.psea.org/act48bookdiscussions

MEMBER WELL-BEING

Feb 28 (5:00-5:45PM): Mindful Monday with Sandy Williams

Register at: www.psea.org/wellness

ONLINE LEARNING

PSEA's Center for Professional Learning is proud to launch our new online learning system: PEARL!

PEARL, Professional Education and Resources for Learning offers dozens of asynchronous, online learning opportunities to PSEA members at no charge. Now members like you can expand your professional learning at your own pace and at times that work for YOU from almost anywhere in the world!

Most courses are eligible for Act 48 hours or a Chapter 14 certificate. All courses provide course completers with an online badge that can be shared on social media platforms as evidence of your growing expertise.

Explore PEARL today at:

<https://pearl.psea.org/>

